 Washington, D. C.

Dear Chief Stewart:

On 20 January, I was attempting to get to the National Airport to make a plane connection in order to keep an urgent and important appointment in Boston, Massachusetts. Unfortunately, I became entangled in the special traffic arrangements caused by the arrival of President Arturo Frondisi of Argentina. I was very considerably delayed and it was rapidly approaching the take-off time for my plane when Officer E. S. Conlon of your Force came to my rescue. Officer Conlon, in a most pleasant and courteous fashion, and with great competence and efficiency, quickly freed my car and escorted me to the airport so that I was able to catch my plane.

I would be grateful if you would convey my genuine thanks and appreciation to Officer Conlon for his services on my behalf.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
